Definition of terms:

Genetic Disorder is a condition diagnosed by a licensed veterinarian specializing in the condition with supporting evidence that the condition is, to the best of the veterinarian's knowledge and experience, genetic (inherited) in nature and not a result of environmental factors such as, but not limited to, Dog's weight, diet, injury, attending illness, etc.

Serious life-altering condition is an illness or physical condition that renders the Dog's quality of life to severe pain and suffering or severe irremediable disfiguration.

For Cause means that the Seller discovers information that makes the placement of the Dog with the Buyer unsafe, ill-advised, or detrimental to the Dog, the Seller, or to the relationship between the Buyer and Seller.

First Right of Refusal: This occurs when Buyer is no longer willing or able to care for Dog and wishes to permanently rehome Dog. Buyer must first contact Seller and offer Dog's return.

Without Recourse: Parties have no option or alternative remedy.

THE PARTIES hereby agree to the following terms and conditions of this contract:

PURPOSE:

PET DOG

The Parties agree that this Dog is sold as a family companion/pet and shall not be used for breeding and that breeding rights belong solely to Seller.

PRICE AND DEPOSIT: Buyer agrees to pay Seller a total of $2,800 + 7.5% State of California sales tax for the Dog, payable in U.S. currency, plus shipping and any other special treatment (e.g. health certificate, travel crate, etc. as invoiced) in the same currency, and less any discounts provided by Seller for possible future procedures (such as spay/neuter, umbilical hernia repair, micro-chipping, parasite control, or vaccinations, as invoiced). Payment is due in full no later than 4 business days before a puppy is picked up unless a cashier's check is the form of payment.

Buyer may make payments but the total must be paid in full by the due date or Seller has the right to place Dog back on the market. In that event, Seller agrees to refund to the Buyer all money paid except for the deposit and $100 finance fee which will be forfeited to the Seller.

1) A non-refundable deposit of $350 is required to reserve a Dog and the deposit is applied to the full purchase price.

a) Seller promises to hold a Dog for Buyer unless and until any one or more of the following conditions occur:

- (1) Dog is sold and delivered to Buyer OR
 - (2) Buyer declines to purchase the Dog OR
 - (3) Buyer does not contact Seller at least 2 week(s) prior to delivery to confirm the transaction AND Seller is unable to contact the Buyer through reasonable attempts (such as, but not limited to, Buyer is not responding to emails or telephone calls from Seller to Buyer and Buyer's named alternate contacts) OR
 - (4) Seller, prior to delivery of the Dog, refunds the deposit, for cause, to terminate the sales negotiation and the release the Dog for resale by the Seller
- 2) The Parties agree that return of the deposit is without recourse and shall terminate Dog sales negotiation and Buyer's claim to a Dog from Seller.
- a) The Parties agree that the deposit secures holding a Dog for Buyer, subject to the above conditions, but there is no guarantee to hold any particular Dog unless agreed upon, in writing, by both Parties
 - b) The Parties agree that the deposit will be applied to the purchase price.

BUYER RESPONSIBILITIES

- 1) The Buyer agrees to teach acceptable behaviors to the puppy, and is responsible for proper socialization of the puppy. Buyer agrees to provide professional obedience training to the puppy beginning at no later than 20 weeks of age, and to continue with training as long as necessary to establish and maintain appropriate dog behavior.
- 2) Buyer agrees to maintain this dog in good health and provide routine preventative health care including keeping standard vet-recommended vaccinations current and keeping the puppy free from external and internal parasites. Buyer agrees to take the dog to regular veterinary check-ups throughout its lifetime.
- 3) The buyer agrees to feed the dog high quality dog food as suggested by the breeder (not a commercial "grocery store" brand) and to provide age-appropriate exercise for the life of the dog. Veterinary records must be provided to the Seller if to request refund or replacement. If any of the above preventative care has not been provided, or if Buyer has not continued the course of vaccinations required for puppies and dogs, the health warranty will be void.

ADDENDUM:

The Parties agree to the terms and conditions listed on the attached Addendum To Purchase Contract: Invoice (Addendum). Should Buyer breach any of the conditions of the Addendum, all warranties under this contract shall become null and void.

SHORT-TERM HEALTH WARRANTY:

- 4) Seller warrants that the Dog is in good health at the time of delivery to Buyer, to the best of Seller's knowledge and belief, and that Dog has been spayed or neutered, any umbilical hernias have been repaired, and the puppy has been vaccinated with age-appropriate vaccinations and dewormed.
 - a) Buyer shall take Dog to a licensed veterinarian within 72 hours of delivery
 - b) Buyer is liable for all veterinary fees but in the event that the veterinarian diagnoses the Dog with a disease or condition that was transmitted to Dog while with the Seller or that the Seller should have known existed then the parties agree that:

 - (4) Reclaim Dog, at Buyer's expense, for a full refund of the price of Dog to Buyer
 - v) The parties agree that vet fees for exam and diagnosis, delivery and incidental costs to the Buyer are not refundable
 - vi) Buyer's request for reimbursement or payment to Buyer's veterinarian shall be accompanied by proof of treatment and costs as well as a written diagnosis from the veterinarian
 - (1) In order for reimbursement, Buyer must have Seller's pre-approval for reimbursement of treatment fees PRIOR to Dog's treatment

GENETIC HEALTH WARRANTY:

- 1) Seller warrants that, to the best of Seller's knowledge and belief, the Dog is in good genetic health. This genetic health warranty extends for two years from the date of birth of Dog.

 - iii) Buyer shall get a second opinion from a specialist in the field of practice for the diagnosis, at Buyer's expense unless otherwise indicated
 - iv) Buyer shall submit a statement from each veterinarian stating that he or she believes, based on his or her training, experience and knowledge that this condition is genetic in nature and NOT resulting from any environmental factor
 - v) Upon satisfactory diagnosis and/or confirmation, Seller shall:
 - (1) Reimburse Buyer for treatment, limited to the price of the Dog OR
 - (2) Pay the veterinarian fees for treatment, limited to the price of Dog OR

- 2) The parties agree that any claim by Buyer for reimbursement from Seller, for any reason, shall be cumulative and that once the total price of the Dog has been reimbursed, Seller has no further liability to Buyer
- 3) The parties agree that this warranty is the full and maximum financial liability Seller may owe Buyer or for the health of Dog

- 1) If placement is an emergency situation, Buyer may return Dog as early as possible at a time and place convenient to Seller
